

TO LET Spacious & versatile business premises at "Brooklands", Newbury St, Wantage in southern Oxfordshire.

General description

The front x 2 storey part of a large, detached commercial building with off-road parking. Believed to date from the Victorian era and set in the town's Conservation Area, the building is set back from Newbury Street (A338) just south of the town centre shopping area and sits in approximately 0.37 acre of walled grounds.

Permitted use

The historic use of the building is as offices, which now fall under Use Class E: Commercial, Business and Service*. But also has the potential to accommodate other uses – subject to planning consent – such as a Hotel/guest house (Use Class C1), a Care/nursing home (C2) or a School (F1(a)). *Some uses permitted by Use Class E may require the Landlord's consent, please check with us before viewing).

Location

The historic market town of Wantage, along with nearby Grove, is located in affluent southern Oxfordshire approximately 15 miles southwest of Oxford at the junction of the A338 with the A417 and approx. 6 miles west of the A34 "Milton interchange" near Didcot. Both are growing rapidly in population terms, set to continue for several years yet.

The building is on the west side of Newbury Street (A338) about 60 yards south of the traffic light crossroads of Portway (B4507 west) and Ormond Road (east) with predominantly residential neighbours. Post code OX12 8DF
